

Monday, July 5, 2021
9-10:30am EDT (New York)

HIGH-LEVEL POLITICAL FORUM ON SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

Society of the Sacred Heart at the UN

Seeking Justice with the Heart of an Educator

Holistic and Intersectional Approaches to Peace at the Heart of Achieving Sustainable Development Goals in a Post-COVID Era

Speakers

Ambassador Paul Beresford-Hill, CBE, KM Permanent Observer Mission of the Sovereign Order of Malta to the United Nations, New York.

Alexandra Amelang Volunteer Researcher, Society of the Sacred Heart at the UN.

Gloria Díaz Brochet, RSCJ Public lawyer and professor of constitutional and administrative law. Gloria has consulted for the Ministry of the Environment, Superintendence of Public Utilities, Water and Basic Sanitation Commission, Comptroller General of the Republic and the Inter-American Development Bank.

Chiaki Hatanka, RSCJ Retired Educator of the Sacred Heart in Japan who presently volunteers with Caritas Minami-soma to serve survivors of the 2011 Fukushima Dai-ichi Nuclear Power Plant disaster.

Jorge Atilano González Candia, SJ Author of several books, including "A Path to Peace: Experiences and Challenges in the Reconstruction of the Social Fabric" (2019), and articles on security, drug trafficking and gangs. Currently Jorge is responsible for the Social Sector of the Society of Jesus in Mexico.

Miren Lumbreras, RSCJ has a background in law, foreign affairs, ecclesiastic sciences, family counseling and mediation. She is a former Director of the Migration Secretariat at the Diocese of Huevla, Spain. Currently, she lives in Portugalete (North of Spain) where she collaborates in the intercultural Association of immigrants BaoBat.

Moderator
Nick Newland Policy and Communications
manager,
Associated Country Women of the World

Registration Link:
[https://bit.ly/2S7
Tr3C](https://bit.ly/2S7Tr3C)

Interpretation in English, French and Spanish

